

You're a Hack

(based on "You're So Vain," with apologies to Carly Simon)

You walked into the series

Like you had never seen it before

You were already planning to tick us off

You obsessed with those Mandos

You had one eye in the mirror

A Fett cutout beside you

And all the fandos dreamed that they'd be popular

They'd be popular, and

You're a hack

You think Star Wars is about Boba

You're a hack

I'll bet you think this is about Traviss

[censored] Traviss

You had us all with Hard Contact

When we were still quite naïve

But then you wrote in Legacy of the Force

Revelation made me heave

You wouldn't shut up about Boba

Though us fans didn't care

I had some dreams your books were not crap, well

That's too much to ask, and

You're a hack

You think Star Wars is about Boba

You're a hack

I'll bet you think this is about Traviss

[censored] Traviss

Well, I hear you got some fanatical fans

Who backed your three million crap

Then you said you'd rip out all of our tracheas

But your books still suck, what do you think of that?

Have you even looked at the reviews?

Tell me you have a clue

That your moronic Mando fantasies are junk

Fantasies are junk

You're a hack

You think Star Wars is about Boba

You're a hack

I bet you think this is about Traviss

[censored] Traviss

Andrew: Well, you're right!

Ryan: Why can't you say even one nice thing about Traviss?

Andrew: Only if you say something good about my songwriting ability.

Lengthy pause.

Andrew: Well?

Ryan: I'm thinking!
